

Standing Room Only....

Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust are proud to support (National Council for Palliative Care's) "Dying Matters Week" which intentionally coincides with May's Schwartz Round and reinforces the themes and ethos of the Foundation

We saw record numbers in attendance and gained excellent feedback from attendee's – Many of whom attended for their first experience of Schwartz Round. During this intimate and inspiring Round this photo was taken and captured perfectly the interest and attentiveness of the audience whilst highlighting there was;

"Standing Room Only"

"Amazing, I enjoyed speaking. I felt like I did unburden the way I was feeling"

"Very interesting. Good insight into other peoples feelings / experiences"

"Good input from the room which was supportive. Great facilitators as well"

"Enjoyable and insightful. Such a good idea"
